

HUNTERS RUN NEWSLETTER

October 2007 / Volume 2 Issue 10

Colder Weather is bound to find us soon.....

In my effort to try and keep the stalls neat and clean looking - I missed the fact that we actually do have a need for a blanket nearby. So, for the winter, please tie a hay string on your door and keep one blanket neatly folded on it. Please also remember to have your blanket clearly marked with a key tag for easy identification. It will be a good time to take home our old ribbons, fly sheets and put away all the stuff that has accumulated near our stalls.

HUNTERS RUN HORSE SHOW SUNDAY, OCT 21

#1- Don't forget the costume class - lots of great prizes!

#2- Fri and Sat (Oct 19&20) Help clean the barn days - we'll be around all day and there will be plenty to do (lets not forget to get more rocks from the outdoor)

#3- There has been a suggestion for a "Clean your Own Stall Day" (or your favorite school horses' stall) This does not mean muck. It means cleaning the bars, the window (if applicable) the spider webs, the buckets . . . Let's try it out and see if everyone can have their own stall done before the horse show - thanks ☺

#4- See the candy machine for the sign-up sheet

The MHJ Medal Finals Winners

TO ALL:

I went over my 2000 minutes allotted on my cell phone by over 2300 minutes- (This means I spent almost 72 hours in September on my cell phone.)

Please use email as often as possible to contact any of us - thanks ☺ Renee
